

Your Privacy, Our Commitment

At MISTIFLE, we believe your privacy is paramount. As part of REECARD LLC, a California-based limited liability company, we are dedicated to upholding your privacy and securing your data. Our approach is open and transparent, empowering you to make informed choices about your online activities.

No Tracking

We don't monitor your online behavior.

Your Data Stays Yours

We never sell your data to anyone.

Protected Storage

Your provided data is stored securely for seamless service delivery.

Respecting Your Anonymity

We respect the significance of online anonymity.

No User Profiling

We don't create profiles to target you with ads.

When you access our services, your device automatically shares certain information, like IP address, browser type, and language. Additional details, such as screen size and operating system, might be shared when requested. However, this information is used temporarily to deliver content and ensure security against malicious activity. Our apps and website are intended for a general audience, and we do not knowingly market to or solicit information from children under 13.

What We Collect

Account Info

When you sign up, we collect your email to communicate about your account. We won't spam you or sell your data. It might be required for some parts of the service.

Payment Details

For subscription payments, secure processors handle your information. Your information is stored according to their privacy policies.

Uploaded Files

Files and any metadata you store with us are stored securely, solely for providing our services.

How We Use Your Data

Service Delivery

Your data supports our file storage and sharing services.

Your email aids us in account-related communication. We only send login links to authorize your account, emails related to the Payment Details on your account and

Improvements

Understanding usage helps us enhance services and resolve issues.

Security

Your data bolsters platform security and fraud prevention.

Authentication

We employ an authentication cookie stored within your browser, cleared upon logout or 7 days.

When Sharing Becomes Necessary

While privacy is our priority, instances arise where sharing is essential:

Trusted Partners

We collaborate with reliable partners for seamless service provision.

Legal Obligations

If the law demands or our rights need protection, we may disclose data.

Business Changes

During mergers or sales, your data could be part of the transition. Your privacy remains a core commitment.

Your Control Matters

Account Deletion

You can delete your account at any time, but remember it's permanent.

Data Retention

After deletion, your data is retained for 60 days before permanent removal.

Email Choices

You control the emails you receive by managing account settings.

We adhere to relevant laws like the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA). All our cookies are essential – the only one we have is for authentication.

Beyond Our Control

IP Addresses

Your ISP, hosting provider, and others may see your IP address; it's part of internet functioning.

Browser Info

Your browser may share details with requests. We don't store this information.

You are not our product, or our user. You're a person with privacy that should be respected. We sell cloud storage services. We never make any money from advertising. Our whole collection of apps was created to inspire creativity, and make people have a secure platform at a fair cost.

Changes and Reach-Out

This policy may evolve to reflect changes, but we'll keep you informed.
